HEAVY TRADING IN LIVESTOCK

B. F. Saunders Closes $20,000 Deal Over Telephone.

SHIPMENT OF 30,000 SHEEP

TWO THOUSAND HEAD OF CAT-TLE SOLD YESTERDAY.

Benjamin F. Saunders, the cattle and sheep dealer, has been closing up some big deals in both cattle and sheep in the last few days. The last sale was that of 8,800 sheep to Frank Beckstead. They were yearling weathers and went for $2.3 Oapiece or about $20,000 for the lot. These sheep Mr. Saunders bought a few days before from Senator War-ren of Wyoming. This deal he closed and Cheyenne in less than ten minutes

Mr. Saunders is also shipping 30,000 wethers to the east. They go to Montgomery, Ills., where they will be fed for some months on wheat screenings for some months on wheat screenings and then will be put on the market for mutton. They range in price from $2 to $2.75. They are being shipped from Green River over the Rio Grande Western and they will fill 150 cars. Earlier in the season Mr. Saunders purchased 80,000 sheep in Oregon, and 45,000 of these he sold to E. L. Clark of Iron county, in this state, for something over $2 a head.

Heavy Deals In Cottle Heavy Deals In Cattle.

But Mr. Saunders is not confining himself to sheep. In the last day of two he has sold 3,500 head of cattle to go from Utah to Montana. They were in two lots and brought over $50,000 The deal for one lot of 2,000 was closed vesterday. They were sold to William The deal for one lot of 2,000 was closed yesterday. They were sold to William Luddy of Boulder, Mont., and the trade was made over the telephone between this city and Great Falls. The other lot of 1,500 was sold a day or two ago to Traverse & Marcum of Cascade, Mont. The average price of all these cattle was $18 a head. They were young feeders feeders.

The shipment of large herds of cattle from Utah to Montana at this time is explained by Mr. Saunders by saying that feed in Utah is unusually scarce and the price of hay very high, while in Montana there is an abundance of feed, making it far more profitable to forten earths with there. The outlook for fatten cattle up there. The outlook for sheep in Utah Mr. Saunders considers good. He thinks there will be ar abundance of feed on the ranges during the winter, and the early snows will make conditions all the more favorable. He says that in Utah the winter ranges now are much better than the ranges now are much better than th such," said he, "that it will not permit of my doing the work that is necessary in a parish such as this, and I expect to go to California to try to recuperate some of my lost strength before returning to the east to take charge of a church."

Mr. Walker has been rector of St. Paul's only since Easter last, but he has endeared himself to all of his parishioners, who will regret to learn of his determination to leave the work here.

No official action has been taken by the official board, and none will likely be taken until the regular meeting of the board the lst of December. No steps have been taken yet in the direction of securing a successor for Mr. Walker.
